Create a “wow” factor!

Create a “Wow” factor by giving a one of a kind gift!

The vertical briefcase to the right was custom created by Promotional Impact for Herman Miller Inc. using the fabric of their top selling Aeron office chair.

Why give away just any bag, when you can give your top customer’s a bag that showcases your top selling product.

Reward achievement!

Only trust your awards and recognition programs with Promotional Impact -- a source that has unmatched design experience – only perfection will do.

Show appreciation!

If it's a blanket you want, Promotional Impact will help you to find a design that's meaningful to your company or just so beautiful – this one will have to go on display.

Get Noticed!

Edelman Leather offers the world's Most Complete Collection of Quality Leathers for Residential, Hospitality, Contract, Aircraft, and Marine Use, but they specialize in the leather hides, not small gifts. This is where Promotional Impact comes in. We apply our client's leather to custom promotions we've created such as these adorable Teddy Bear's – talk about driving traffic at a trade show booth!!

We've also custom developed tape measures, pens and coasters using Edelman's leather. Why would Edelman Leather ever want to give away a gift made from anything besides their own product?

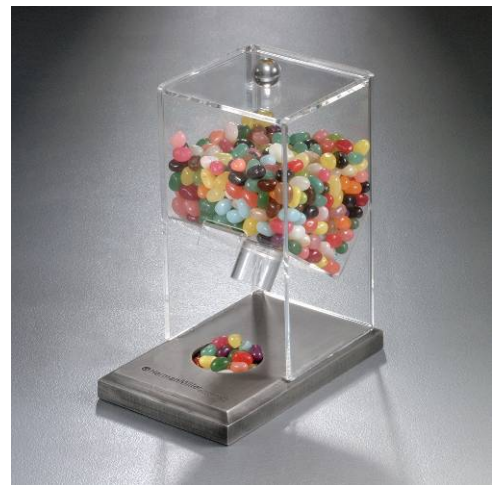

Be innovative!

Drive sales!

Whether you need a custom case for your sales force to properly display a new product, a unique folder to present sales literature or a decorative candy jar for the lobby, Promotional Impact specializes in creative packaging of all kinds that reflects your brand image and drives sales.
